NEWSLETTER MARCH 2022

Volume 11 Number 2

COUNCIL VACANCY

The vacancy caused by the resignation of Councillor Morrish has been filled. The new Councillor for the Low Quarter Ward is Mr. D. MacKay of Duddon View Barn, Pear Tree Farm.

PLANNING

Two planning applications were discussed
SL/2022/0040 – Marsh Cotte, Wallend – two storey front porch extension and single storey rear kitchen extension.
SL/2022/0097 – Stone Arthur, School Road – change of use from dwelling to holiday let – retrospective.

DEVELOPMENT OF LAND ADJACENT TO BURLINGTON SCHOOL

As concerns have been expressed to the Council of problems occurring during this first phase of the development a meeting of Councillors and representatives of Burlington School, with the developers, is being arranged.

CORRESPONDENCE

Correspondence received by the Council are always attended to in the correct and appropriate manner, with enquiries made, discussion and consideration with necessary replies made. However, on occasion correspondence is received with no name or address of the sender recorded – one such recently concerning parking on School Road – regrettably, the Council cannot consider such correspondence unless it includes the name and address of the sender. Everyone should be confident that correspondence received by the Council will be treated confidentially and a request to remain anonymous may be made – so long as a name and address of the sender is enclosed.

QUEEN'S JUBILEE CELEBRATIONS

A number of meetings have been held between Councillors, committee members of the Community Centre and the public.

For further details and arrangements please see the article elsewhere in the Caller.

POST OFFICE SERVICES

The new service has started at the Community Centre on Thursdays from 10.00 a.m. until 12 midday. Coffee and biscuits are being provided at this time by the Community Centre. It is hoped to extend this social activity to groups in the village who would like to advertise their activities. The Parish Council will be using this opportunity to hold surgeries. If the Thursday openings prove successful a further opening will be available on Mondays.

OTHER MATTERS

- The Grizebeck road improvement scheme is moving to the planning stage.
- The Council have financially supported the X112 bus that goes to Barrow on Wednesday and Friday. It is free to those with a pass but contributions are always welcome to keep the service viable. Time tables are available on the stops at Marshside, School Road and Soutergate.
- Once again a number of drivers have been observed exceeding the limit along School Road. The Police Authorities are to be asked to vary the location of the speed camera vehicle to include Dove Bank.
- The Parish Lengthsman will begin work again in April.
- The Community Centre and Grizebeck Village Hall are getting back to normal following the pandemic. Please see the respective web sites for further details.
- The Kirkby Ireleth Relief in Need Charity Trustees are providing help to those who are having financial difficulties. If you know of any one who may need help such as this please contact any of the Trustees. Their contact details are on the Kirkby website. All matters, will of course, be strictly confidential.

- If you are new to the Parish The Parish Council's "Welcome to Kirkby" booklet is available to view on the Kirkby website.
- Don't forget the "Handy Person" scheme if you need help. For further details contact SLDC on their website, or Tel: 01539 733 333, or your local Parish Councillor.

CITIZENS' ADVICE

When you're online shopping, it's not always clear whom to contact if things go wrong. As a customer, your contract is with the seller that you bought the item from. It's the seller's responsibility to make sure the item is delivered to you. They should chase the courier to find out what happened to your order if there's a problem.

If your parcel hasn't arrived, check the delivery address you gave the seller, to make sure it's correct. Then contact the seller and ask where your order is. If the seller claims they've delivered it or doesn't know where it is, you can ask for a redelivery. You might be able to get a refund in some circumstances where the delivery time was essential and you let the seller know ahead of time.

Under the Consumer Rights Act 2015, you can ask the seller to deliver the item to you again if the item wasn't delivered either by an agreed date, or within a reasonable time - usually within 30 days. If the new delivery fails to come within a reasonable time, you can ask the seller for a refund.

Another problem people face is when parcels get left in different places, for example outside or with a neighbour. If your item was delivered by Royal Mail, and they left your package with a neighbour or in a certain place because you told them to, it's not the seller or Royal Mail's responsibility if it gets lost. If they leave it somewhere you hadn't instructed, it's the seller's responsibility if it gets lost. You should contact the seller to ask for a redelivery or a refund.

If the item was delivered by a courier, check your terms and conditions or account details - they might include other places for delivery, like your porch or a neighbour's house. If you agreed to them, it's not the seller's or courier's responsibility if your order has gone missing. However if you did not agree to this, then it's the seller's responsibility if your order goes missing. If you ordered something from a private seller or you're still having trouble after trying the tips above, you can contact the Citizens Advice consumer helpline for help.
